Where: Napa Valley, California

Delight Your Tastebuds in Napa Valley, California for Four Days & Three Nights in a Guest Suite Adjoining a Private Vineyard for Two, Including Two Unique Winery Tours or Tastings (Excludes airfare)

Nestled among the vine-draped upvalley hills, St. Helena is the charming and welcoming heart of the Napa Valley where winemaking began in the 1800s, and which has become the proud home of powerhouse wineries Beringer, Sutter Home, and Louis Martini, as well as critically acclaimed small producers including Corison, Spottswoode, Vineyard 29 and Terra Valentine Winery. Learn more about the winemaking process on a tour or at a tasting of two magnificent estates and historic wineries, where you'll find carefully crafted wines and exclusive vintages. You'll find ultra premium wines produced from superior grapes as you tour and taste at boutique wineries.

St. Helena is a welcoming community that embraces the wine country hospitality. Experience its culinary scene, which includes fine dining at award-winning restaurants. You'll get to explore two of the many wineries and vineyards, but St. Helena also offers opportunities for relaxation, such as a day at the spa. The hardest part about your visit may be deciding among many options of what to do! While in Napa Valley, you will stay in a stylish and sophisticated private guest house which overlooks the mountains, vineyards and a picturesque 100 year old barn. Stroll through a garden as you enter your barn guest suite, and then relax and enjoy the comforts of a coffee bar, soaking tub, and outdoor dining area, including a bocce court.

Many of Napa Valley's prestigious wineries date back to as early as the 1800s when wine grapes were first planted on the land. These authentic estates and vineyards are part of Napa's legacy, set on quiet country roads, filled with majestic oaks and lush fruit trees, and boasting panoramic views. You'll find award-winning appellations and masterfully crafted varietals at these estates, several of which are family-run, and which have become famous for their extensive portfolios. Savor the fruits of the vine on a tour or at a tasting at two boutique wineries or tasting rooms so you can have an exclusive look behind the scenes, which could include a dose of history, and a taste directly from the barrel! Your exclusive tastings will leave you with a richer understanding and appreciation of the foundation of exceptional wines.
